A.—The following is the procedure followed to ensure the speedy disbursement of loans to ryots in the Block Development areas :—

According to paragraph 10, Chapter I of Part III (Executive Instructions) of the Loans (Takkavi) Manual, all applications for loans under Land Improvement Loans and Agriculturists Loans Acts should be disposed of within a period of two months from the date of receipt of the applications. Regarding the applications for the purchase of pump-sets and agricultural implements and machinery under Land Improvement Loans and Agriculturists Loans Acts which are to be disposed of in consultation with Industries or Agricultural Departments the maximum time prescribed for the disposal of such applications is four months from the date of the receipt of application.

[31st January 1963.

2. In order to help speedy disbursement of loans, the Collectors have been empowered to employ in anticipation of Board's sanction temporary staff on the scale laid down in paragraph 10 (2), Chapter I, Part III of the Takkavi Manual for enquiry into the loan applications. Revenue Divisional Officers have been instructed to check and verify during their quarterly inspection of the block offices whether there had been any undue delay in the disbursement of loans to the ryots. Instructions have also been issued for the speedy disbursement of loans under the Intensive Manuring Scheme.

3. In paragraph 10 of the Executive Instructions, it has been ordered that on receipt of an application, the Revenue Inspector shall obtain a statement from the village officers in regard to the bonafides of the applicant. On completion of the enquiry the Revenue Inspector will forward the application with his recommendation to the Tahsildar or Block Development Officer within a week from the date of receipt of application. The Tahsildar or Block Development Officer or Deputy Tahsildar shall on receipt of the Revenue Inspector's report carefully scrutinise the application and dispose it within a week of its receipt.

4. Instructions have been issued by the Government to the effect that all loan applications should be disposed of within a period of 2 months from the date of receipt of the applications and it has also been ordered that delays exceeding the prescribed time-limit should be viewed seriously and suitable action taken to prevent any avoidable delay in the disposal of the applications.
